Press Release

United States Sports Specialty Association Makes New Appointment.

The USSSA is serious about the development of Martial Arts and their National Karate chairman, Adrian Ellis

Orlando, Florida November 19, 2011: United States Sports Specialty Association 2011 USSSA National Convention in Orlando, Florida, was a huge success with delegates from across the country; many new and exciting events are planned for the National organization.

One of the biggest change was newly appointed National Karate Chairman Adrian Ellis, was appointed as National Chair of Martial Arts. In the new position Ellis will oversee the development of all Martial arts programming for the USSSA National Program.

Prior to the USSSA, Ellis was executive director for the AAU Martial Arts program under the direction of its National Chairman, while there Ellis was instrumental in helping the AAU achieve record numbers in their martial arts program, Ellis left the AAU in 2004.

Ellis states, " I am honored by President Don DeDonatis for his trust and faith in me as the National Chairman, I am equally thankful to Tom Turley for his guidance and support." We welcome all martial artists regardless of style or affiliation to explore the tremendous opportunities with the USSSA Program. We are an organization that is inclusive and not exclusive of martial artist.

United States Sports Specialty Association "USSSA" was founded in 1968 as a slow –pitch soft organization and has grown over the years providing sports in over 21 different sports. Today the USSSA National organization is the largest multi-sports Organization in the world with over 5 million members. The National Headquarters is an 18,000 square foot office in Kissimmee, Florida with a 5,000 square foot hall of fame and sports museum.

The USSSA Karate Program is actively seeking zone, state, and Regional Directors in various areas anyone interested in learning more about the USSSA National Martial Arts Program, should contact Adrian Ellis, National Chairman, 321-206-1114 or email to USSSAKARATE@Gmail.com.
